

Ontario Insurance Brokers Renew Sponsorship Agreement with Professional Golfer Richard Scott

(Toronto, Ontario) January 21st, 2010. Today, the Insurance Brokers Association of Ontario (IBAO) is proud to announce that it is renewing its sponsorship agreement with professional golfer Richard Scott.

Scott, a 26 year old Kingsville, Ontario native, was ranked number one amateur in Canada by the Royal Canadian Golf Association. Scott turned professional in November 2006 after having won three Canadian Men's Amateur Golf Championships, becoming only the sixth player in over 100 years to win three titles. This will be his fourth year as a Canadian Tour member. Last season, Scott tied for fourth in the Times Colonist Open, 9th at the ATB Financial classic and 9th at the Telus Edmonton Open.

"IBAO is proud to announce our continued partnership with Richard Scott," said IBAO CEO Randy Carroll. "Richard is a great role model for young Ontarians pursuing their dreams. Richard joins IBAO at charitable events throughout the year, spreading awareness for many organizations, including Ontario Students against Impaired Driving (OSAID)."

"Insurance brokers are committed to raising awareness and keeping their citizens informed," said Richard Scott. "I am very proud to be sponsored by an association so dedicated to improving their communities."
