9TH ANNUAL CANADIAN CRIME VICTIM FOUNDATION
(CCVF) GALA TO TAKE PLACE ON MAY 27

Evening Includes Special Guest Speakers And Musical Performances by Marc Jordan and Amy Sky

Toronto, Ontario – April 18, 2011 Special guest speakers and fantastic musical talent will be the focus of the 9th Annual CCVF Gala and Fundraiser. This special event will be held Friday, May 27, 2011 at 6:30 pm at The Riviera Parque (2800 Hwy 7) in Vaughan.

Global TV personality Susan Hay will emcee the event, along with hosts Joe & Lozanne Wamback. They will be joined by some very special guest speakers (to be announced shortly). This year's Gala will also include very special musical performances from two of Canada's best known singer/songwriters; Marc Jordan & Amy Sky. The evening will conclude with very special keynote addresses from family members and survivors of victims of violence.

A highlight of the Gala event will be the silent auction, which will raise funds to provide scholarships to innocent victims of crime. To date the CCVF has raised and distributed over $400,000 for victims of violent crime.

To help make both this event and our objectives possible, CCVF offers corporate sponsorship opportunities, and is proud to announce that the Insurance Brokers Association of Ontario is one of our Platinum sponsors.

The CCVF is a registered charitable organization dedicated to support, empower and provide resources to victims of crime and to affect positive change to victim services in Canada. CCVF operates without salaries or directors fees. All funds raised support innocent victims and survivors of violent crime in Canada.

MISSION STATEMENT: "To support, empower and provide resources to victims of crime and to affect positive change to victim services in Canada."

OUR VISION: "Giving Victims a Voice"
