

IBAO-Sponsored Golfer Richard Scott Finishes in Top 5

Scott Earns Best Finish at Mississauga Canadian Tour Event

TORONTO, August 27, 2008, Richard Scott, the Ontario native professional golfer sponsored by the Insurance Brokers Association of Ontario (IBAO) boasted his most impressive performance this season by tying for fourth over the weekend at the Jane Rogers Championship of Mississauga.

Scott, 24, is considered one of the most promising young golfers in Canada with three Canadian Men's Amateur Titles under his belt, and has been sponsored by the insurance brokers since he turned professional in early 2007.

So far this season, Scott has earned three top 10 finishes on the Canadian Tour, including tying for 5th spot at the Canadian Tour Players Cup held in Winnipeg, and tying for 5th again at the TELUS Edmonton Open in July.

"We're proud that Richard is sporting the IBAO logo once again this season," said IBAO CEO Randy Carroll. "And we look forward to having him join the broker community in September at some local golf events that IBAO is involved with."

During his first year as a professional in 2007, Scot earned two top 10 finishes on the Canadian Tour, had a win on the Tar Heel Tour and also made it to the second stage of the gruelling PGA Qualifying School.

"I'm pleased with my performance this past weekend and it was nice to play in Ontario and so close to home," said Scott. "My ultimate goal for this year, however, is to play well through all the three stages of Q School and earn my PGA Tour card in the fall."

Despite his busy schedule, Scott will be joining three Ontario insurance brokers in early September to compete for fun at a Premier McGuinty fundraiser golf tournament being held in Brampton, Ontario.
